

6516205383.txt

I do not mind paying for a wide variety of entertainment choices without the interruption of advertising. We live in an area that has few radio choices, XM provides a choice for every person and every mood. Isn't this how the free enterprise system is supposed to work? Please leave XM rado alone.
L Johnston